

Sonnen Joedeman

April 2, 2019, Lincoln, NE - The ARC Group, LLC, welcomes Sonnen Joedeman as a Grain Settlement Clerk at the grain marketing company's home office in Lincoln, Nebraska.

In this position, she will be responsible for reconciling grain settlements and processing payments to farmers, as well as perform the role of an Administrative Assistant on an as-needed basis.

Sonnen joins The ARC Group with an accounting background and the knowledge and experience that comes with growing up on a homestead in rural Nebraska.

Justin Lovegrove, President of The ARC Group, says, "We are looking forward to having Sonnen on board. Her accounting skills will complement and support our growing team of Risk Management Advisors."

XXX

About The ARC Group, LLC

The ARC Group LLC, founded in 2003, is an agricultural risk consulting group. The ARC Group, LLC helps producers professionally merchandise their grain by following a disciplined risk management program which focuses on three key principles: futures, carry, and basis. All three need to be maximized to have a successful marketing plan. The ARC Group, LLC is an independent local company. Our consultants have the experience and expertise to help you implement and execute a merchandising plan tailored to your operation. We are completely aligned with the farmer's best interests by having a risk management strategy independent of all end users. For more information, visit agriskconsulting.net.