

Charlotte Sell

February 1, 2019, Lincoln, NE - The ARC Group, LLC, welcomes Charlotte Sell as an Assistant to Heather Ramsey at the grain marketing company's branch office in Bruning, Nebraska.

Charlotte will be working with clients and end users and assisting with grain settlements.

Charlotte has an extensive background working in an elevator handling customer accounts, hedging grain and feed products, managing storage positions, and other tasks related to the elevator setting.

Heather Ramsey, Grain Marketing Advisor, says, "She will be a great addition to the Bruning office and ARC as a whole."

About The ARC Group, LLC

The ARC Group LLC, founded in 2003, is an agricultural risk consulting group. The ARC Group, LLC helps producers professionally merchandise their grain by following a disciplined risk management program which focuses on three key principles: futures, carry, and basis. All three need to be maximized to have a successful marketing plan. The ARC Group, LLC is an independent local company. Our consultants have the experience and expertise to help you implement and execute a merchandising plan tailored to your operation. We are completely aligned with the farmer's best interests by having a risk management strategy independent of all end users.
